

3966

Camera!

The Digest of the Motion Picture Industry

Vol. II, No. 1

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, APRIL 6, 1919

Price 5 Cents

HELEN JEROME EDDY

Read His Story on Page Five

The Last Whistle

LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA, SUNDAY, APRIL 6, 1919

If you don't want to be left waiting at the station with your suitcase when the big special Camera! pulls out, you'd better get your ticket now.

The printed is impatient—the Linotype people are howling for copy—the pressroom has issued its last warning—and the editor is shedding his collar.

Now listen to me—

SATURDAY NOON IS THE DEADLINE

If your little speech isn't in the office by that time, we can't save you. All the good intentions this side of Wilhelmstrasse won't get your ad printed if it doesn't get here. I'd like to wait a year for you—but it can't be done.

THE ANNUAL NUMBER WILL APPEAR IN TWO WEEKS

GET BUSY!

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
STATE LIBRARY

The Business Manager

PRODUCTION NOTES AROUND HOLLYWOOD

Week Beginning March 30

TALMADGE TO MAKE PICTURES EAST

Constance Talmadge and all that portion of the Talmadge family still remaining in the west will flit to the east in a few days to begin work on Miss Constance's first picture with First National. Anita Loos and John Emerson have signed with the Talmadge sisters to write continuity and sub-titles and will accompany the party east. The first picture selected for Miss Constance is Jane Cowl's stage success "Information Please." Miss Natalie Talmadge will play the part of the younger sister.

The New York studio will be devoted solely to the Talmadge activities, with Miss Norma working on one floor and Constance on the other. Elsa Lopez, formerly with Griffith, is at the head of the research department.

SIEGMANN RETURNING TODAY

Word from San Francisco has it that Lieutenant Siegmann is to arrive from San Francisco some time today, having been discharged day before yesterday at the Presidio.

Eddie Peil starts Monday with the Jesse D. Hampton company as a Chinese heavy with H. B. Warner. He was loaned through the courtesy of D. W. Griffith.

Joe Frantz is to direct the next William Desmond picture, to start in ten days or two weeks. Desmond is back from New York and is whipping the story into shape for production.

Elmer Clifton finished the current Dorothy Gish feature Saturday and will start the next picture in the course of another week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. T. Bahnzaf arrived from New York this week and are stopping at the Alexandria. Mr. Bahnzaf is D. W. Griffith's legal adviser.

Jack Lloyd returned Friday night from a trip east.

Anita Loos, Mrs. Loos, John Emerson and a party of three made a complete investigation of the social and business activities of Santa Ana this week, having come to a stop in that city when the rear end of the car refused to come further without repairs. They were on their way back from a short visit to San Diego. They leave the latter part of this week for New York where they will take over the continuity and sub-title departments for the Talmadge sisters.

John T. Rankin, for several months with Goldwyn, and recently recovered from a long illness with influenza, is now with Sol Lesser writing publicity for the "Yankee Doodle in Berlin" road show. Doc Howe, formerly manager of the Temple theatre in Santa Ana and for several months with the All Star people, will have charge of the show on the road.

Clune's Broadway Theatre will change bills on Monday hereafter. The present feature, Dorothy Gish in "Boots," will remain on the calendar for eight days instead of seven.

NEW LASKY STUDIO

The Famous Players-Lasky Corporation will soon break ground in Long Island City for a studio and laboratory. The studio will be erected on the block bounded by Graham, Pierce, Seventh and Sixth Avenues and will include two large stages, one glass-covered, the other open. The laboratory will be across the street on the Pierce and Sixth Avenue corner. The plans for the plant were drawn under the direction of Frank Meyer and Ralph Kohn has charge of executing them.

The Plaza Theatre announces the installation of an apparatus by which suitable pictures are tinted as they are thrown on the screen. It is claimed for the tinting that it not only enhances the beauty of the picture but relieves eye strain.

JOHNSONS RETURN

TO SOUTH SEAS

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson, whose notable "Cannibals of the South Sea Islands" has created a sensation in travelogues, are on their way back to the South Sea to get more cannibal pictures. They expect to remain away about three years. In addition to full equipment for making pictures, they are taking with them prints of the pictures made on their first trip, a projection machine and a portable screen. They hope to entertain the savages with moving pictures of themselves and by this means explain their mission among them. Mr. Johnson is also taking cameras especially fitted for microscopic long-distance and under-sea work. The films will be developed and printed in South Sea ports and shipped from time to time to the Robertson Cole Company in New York for distribution.

A NEW INDUSTRY IN CANADA

The business men of Calgary and Edmonton have formed a company known as Canadian Photoplays Limited, for the purpose of co-operating with the Shipman-Curwood company in financing and exploiting the filmed stories by James Oliver Curwood. Under existing contracts four feature pictures per year will be produced and marketed through the medium of the most prominent and firmly established film exchanges in the markets of the world.

Bert Lytell has started on another comedy called "The Lion's Den," by Frederick Orin Bartlett. George D. Baker wrote the entire script for "The Lion's Den" and is also directing.

AL CHRISTIE STUDIO

Four comedies are under way at the Christie studio this week. Al E. Christie is directing Fay Tincher, Patricia Palmer, Eddie Barry, Harry Depp, Marjorie Payne, Ward Caulfield and others in a two-reel special. Scott Sidney is directing a comedy in which Dorothy DeVore, Earl Rodney and Roscoe Karns are featured. Jay Belasco has taken up directorial work, putting on a picture featuring Ethel Lynne and himself. The fourth company is directed by Wm. Beaudine.

Frohman Amusement company has moved over to the Astra studios at Glendale.

Lewis Stone, under the direction of Lloyd Ingraham, is starting a picture of the northern woods.

Richard A. Rowland, president of Metro, says:

"The program system is due for a fade-out. We will drop the one-release-a-week plan entirely. During the year we will produce perhaps thirty-six or forty pictures, and we intend to sell each one separately. Of course the exhibitor demands to know what he will get. We can tell him that—so many Lytells, so many Danas, so many Allisons, and so on, during the next year. But the price will not be set until the picture is finished and we have seen what it is really worth."

Ora Carew has completed her initial own company production, and her director, Walter Wright, is now trimming the film.

TWO CAMERAS TAKE "DESERT GOLD"

Abraham Scholtz and A. L. Todd Photographed Zane Grey Novel "Desert Gold" will be filmed throughout by two cameras. The cameramen, Abraham Scholtz and A. L. Todd, report from their location on the Colorado desert that atmospheric conditions have been ideal.

FINISH WITH BIG SCENES

Director T. Hayes Hunter says that, in making a screen production, it is wisest to "shoot" the big, vital and especially the dangerous scenes, last. Hunter is directing "Desert Gold," Zane Grey's novel which is being filmed by the author's own company.

Those who will take part in the big final scene are E. K. Lincoln, Russell Simpson, Arthur Morrison, W. Lawson Butt and Margery Wilson. In the book and the picture, which exactly follows the original, this is not the final scene of the book, but one of the chief climaxes.

UNIVERSAL NOTES

By Ham Beall

Mary MacLaren is vacationing in Southern California after completing "Prairie Gold," under Tod Browning's direction. Thurston Hall, Miss MacLaren's leading man, is also enjoying a brief respite from his ardent screen duties as love-maker extraordinary.

Monroe Salisbury and his company are on location at Idylwild in the San Jacinto mountains. Director Rupert Julian is shooting the scenes from a script prepared by Bernard McConville.

Francelia Billington is the feminine lead in "The Pinnacle," the snow picture which Eric Von Stroheim is producing. Sam DeGrasse and Von Stroheim, who also wrote the story, have the principal male parts.

"And the Elephant Still Pursued Her," the second of the William S. Campbell animal comedies, starring Joe the monk, Caesar the lion and Charley the elephant, is now in the cutting and titling stage. Director Campbell is collaborating with Editor in Chief Frank Lawrence in reducing the film to proper footage, while Harry Burns, Campbell's assistant, is supervising the preparation of the subtitles.

"Out Wyoming Way," starring Pete Morrison and Helen Gibson, is completed and Director Jack Ford is awaiting the return of his feature western star, Harry Carey. Carey is expected soon and "A Man of Peace" has been bought from Jackson Gregory as his next vehicle. During Carey's absence touring the country making personal appearances at leading theatres, Ford has been busy directing two-reel westerns starring Morrison and Miss Gibson.

Eddie Polo is enjoying a brief vacation after finishing "Buck Lawson Rides Alone," the fourth of a series of two-reel western dramas de luxe being produced under the direction of Jacques Jaccard.

James J. Corbett is working on the ninth episode of "The Midnight Man," which James W. Horne is directing. Kathleen O'Connor is "Gentleman Jim's" leading woman.

Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran are working on a new one-reel comedy, "Get the Money," from the pen of Clyde Bruckman, former Saturday Evening Post writer.

With Josephine Hill, formerly of Gus Edwards' "School Days" vaudeville headliner, and Ann May as his leading women, Neal Burns has completed "One Lovely Night," under the direction of Al Santell.

The final episodes are being shot by Director J. P. McGowan for Marie Walcamp's new serial, "The Red Glove."

Ruby LaFayette, the little mother of "Mother of Mine," the Rupert Julian production of many moons ago, has another "little mother" role with Eddie Polo in "Buck Lawson Rides Alone."

The famous Oasis bar at Universal City, the "set" that was as the dramatic centrifugal force for countless western stories produced at the film-land capital, is being torn down while plans for a new section of the "Western Street" are being made.

Carl Laemmle's dictum that Universal scenario writers must mark taboo all situations depending for dramatic effect on the alcoholic atmosphere of the saloon, in view of the impending dryness of the nation, has caused the wreckers to pick on the Oasis for their victim.

Walt Whitman, a character actor,

is cast for the part of an ex-convict in "The Chatterbox," directed by Director Rollin Sturgeon.

Herschel Mayall has been engaged for the part of Durant, the western bad man in "The Open Road," Monroe Salisbury's play.

Jack Pickford began work Monday on his last picture under contract to the First National. Gloria Hope plays opposite, under the direction of Jack Dillon. Mary Pickford has bought "Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come" for Jack, paying $10,000 for same. John Fox, Jr., is the author.

The Frazee Film Productions, Inc., have begun work at their studio, 5821 Santa Monica boulevard, with an all-star cast, under the direction of Edwin Frazee. Victor Scheurich is the cameraman, and Fred Littlejohn the assistant director. The company will produce one and two-reel comedies. Included in the cast are Harry O'Connor, Annette De Foe, Charley Thurston and Joe Murphy.

Dustin Farnum started another picture Wednesday on the Brunton lot, under the direction of T. Thomas N. Heffron. He is supported by Irene Rich, Joseph Dawling, Herbert Standing and Claire DuBrey. Story and continuity were written by Tom Gerhart. Title "Harvest of Shame."

Bill Duncan completed the fourteenth episode of "The Man of Might" last week. One of the most striking sets of recent date was the volcano built in Chatsworth Park for the episode. The scene was representative of Hawaii. The eruption of the historic Hawaiian volcano was accomplished by a great blasting of rock and red fire. Three hundred Mexicans in Hawaiian costumes added to the realism.

In Other Cities

CINCINNATI.—"Common Clay" with Fannie Ward at the Walnut, and "The Girl Dodger" with Charle Ray, at the Starnd, are the leading pictures billed for the entire week.

ST. LOUIS.—Anita Stewart in "A Midnight Romance" at the New Grand Central, and Shirley Mason in "The Rescuing Angel" are the leading bills for the week.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Imperial, Margaret Clark in "Three Men and a Girl," California, Elsie Ferguson in "The Marriage Price," Tivoli, Dustin Farnum in "A Man in the Open" and May Allison in "Peggy Does her Darnest."

PHILADELPHIA.—Stanley, Griffith's "The Girl Who Stayed at Home," Palace, Bill Hart in "The Poppy Girl's Husband," Arcadia, Elsie Ferguson in "The Marriage Price," Victoria Wm. Farnum in "The Man Hunter," Regent, Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Way of the Strong," Strand, Billie Burke in "Good Gracious Annabelle."

CHICAGO.—Bijou and Rose, Anita Stewart in "A Midnight Romance," Randolph, "Cannibals of the South Seas," Casino, Harry Carey in "A Fight for Love," Castle, Chas. Ray in "The Sheriff's Son," Ziegfeld, George Beban in "Hearts of Men," Boston, Wm. S. Hart in "The Poppy Girl's Husband," Alcazar, Tom Mix in "Fighting for Gold," Star, Valeska Suratt in "The Soul of Broadway," Orpheum, Griffith's "The Girl Who Stayed at Home."

OMAHA.—Rialto, Anita Stewart in "A Midnight Romance," Sun, Peggy Hyland in "The Rebellious Bride," Strand, Constance Talmadge in "Romance and Arabella," Muse, Madge Kennedy in "A Daughter of Mine," Brandeis, Priscilla Dean in "The Wicked Darling," Empress, Hale Hamilton in "Johnny on the Spot."

NEW YORK.—Films for the week downtown are: Rialto, Chas. Ray in "The Sheriff's Son," Strand, Billie Burke in "Good Gracious Annabelle," Rivoli, Marguerite Clark in "Three Men and a Girl," Broadway, Dean in "Raggedy Ann," 81st Street, Peggy Hyland in "Persuasive Peggy," and Florence Reed in "Her Code of Honor."

Volume 2

Number 1

Edited and printed on Sunday afternoon of each week at 4513 Sunset Boulevard, in Los Angeles, California.

Entered as second class matter, August 11, 1918, at the postoffice at Los Angeles, Cal., under act of March 3, 1889.

Devoted to the News of the Motion Picture Industry

E. M. ROBBINS.....Editor

Raymond Cannon.....Business Mgr.

Telephone.....Holly 1539

Price 5 Cents per copy, $1.50 per Year

Sunday, April 6, 1919

ANENT SUB-TITLES

Having passed something like twenty minutes going through a Brander Mathews review of a recent book on the "American" language, the editor feels that certain remarks on the subject of "America as she is subtitled" would not be out of place in this column. No originality is claimed, Mr. Mathews has led the way for the writer of books and the following suggestions are but carrying his idea further:

The Encyclopedia Britannica, somewhere in its pages mentions "It is not uncommon to meet with (American) newspaper articles of which an untraveled Englishman would hardly be able to understand a sentence."

Now if that is true of newspaper articles, the writer does not care to speculate on the degree of understanding with which the Southdown audience greets the subtitles of a James Montgomery Flagg or Mack Sennett Comedy. Not that they are not well written, but they pull for comedy in real old American slang, and that statement need not be confined to comedies. Of the last seven or eight pictures the writer has reviewed, at least half have relied on purely American expressions to draw laughs.

Any company of much size or reputation is today bidding for a place in the foreign markets, and it might be well to either write a separate set of titles for foreign consumption, or else prepare the original in such manner that the foreign audience will be able to understand. At any rate, think it over.

CAMERAMEN UNITE AS CRITICS

Some of the picture photographers in Los Angeles have organized under the name of "The American Society of Cinematographers," with a view to helping the producer make better pictures. This, of course, will be a big aid to the exhibitor and in turn will

If a red pencil mark appears in this space it signifies that your subscription has expired or is now in arrears. If you have been notified before and have telephoned us to keep sending the paper, this mark is to warn you once again. If you have received no notification, you will receive one more copy of the paper. After that however we will be compelled to stop delivery, not only for financial reasons but because the postal laws do not allow the distribution of continuous free copies.

We do not want you to miss an issue of the paper, and we do not think you want to miss it. On the address slip on the front page you will find a date, which marks the time to which you have paid. Remittance may be either by coin, well wrapped, postal money order or your own check. Make all remittances payable to CAMERA! 4513 Sunset Boulevard, Los Angeles, Cal.

To insure delivery of copy your remittance must reach this office not later than Friday.

mean much to the general public. Some member of the organization will be designated to see each picture produced and write a general criticism of it from the standpoint of direction, photography, story, continuity.

Philip E. Rosen is president of the organization and W. C. Foster the treasurer. The other members are Charles G. Roshier, Homer A. Scott, Victor Milner, Dal Clawson, Arthur Edeson, Eugene Gaudio, Joe August, L. Guy Wilky, Robert S. Newhard, Walter L. Griffin, Deb Jennings, Fred Granville, Roy H. Klaffki, Tom Gaudio, Hugh C. McClung, S. S. Norton, F. W. Jackman, Albert G. Heimerl, Walter Lundine, Chester A. Lyons, Charles E. Kaufman, Frank B. Good, R. H. Tothshroh, William Beckway, Gilbert Warrenton, King D. Gray, E. G. Ullman, John W. Boyle, A. Scholtz and Lewis Physioc.

George Eastman, president of the Eastman Kodak company, is to present the city of Rochester a moving picture theater, which it is said will be one of the finest in the world.

Wadsworth Harris is in the Marie Walcamp serial directed by Mr. McGowan at Universal.

It might be noted in passing that New York's female contingent is beginning to affect bobbed hair. Possibly copying Dorothy Gish. But any way, she who would be first among the Broadway favorites now has her tip.

NEW ACTOR'S ASSOCIATION

An organization known as the Actors Association has been duly organized and incorporated, a state charter obtained and temporary headquarters opened at 6408 Hollywood boulevard.

The chief purposes of the association are:

1. To maintain a co-operative exchange for the members of the association only.
2. All members' salaries to be listed in the exchange as the basis upon which to transact their business.
3. It will be the purpose of the exchange to act as a clearing house for the transaction of all business between the artist and the manager.
4. A sufficient commission only to be charged on all business transacted through the exchange to pay the current expenses of the association, without an element of profit.
5. It is the object of the association to in every honorable way encourage the production of better pictures and to assist in improving the general conditions under which they are made.
6. Believing that the relations existing between the artists and manager are mutually dependent, it is the principle of this association to promote a better understanding in all things between the manager and the artist, for their several benefits.
7. This association is formed to encourage and promote the legitimate business interests of its members and for no other purpose.

The following qualifications are necessary for membership in this association:

1. Three years on the speaking stage and one year in motion pictures; or,
2. Four years in motion pictures during one of which at least playing responsible business; or,
3. Juvenile leads are eligible for membership providing that they can satisfy the board of directors that they are such.
4. Actors whose registered salary is less than $60 per week are not eligible to membership.

The association is not affiliated with any organization, it opposes all legislation, it provides in no way for the adjustment of grievances, real or fancied, its primary object first, last and all the time being to transact the business of the members and the members only.

Milton Sills returns to Goldwyn pictures as leading man for Pauline Frederick in a powerful emotional drama of today, this being his first

HELLFIRE AND BRIMSTONE WITH NOW AND THEN A GLIMPSE O' PARADISE

EXTRAVAGANCE

This is the best thing I have seen Miss Dalton in for many months and the chief criticism I have to make of the picture lies largely along lines that may or may not yield to argument.

The punch of the picture lies in a dream. The audience is led to believe (in my opinion) that this is real stuff, and the bridge is burned behind. The reasons follow:

First, Miss Dalton is not allowed to go to sleep. On the contrary, we are told that she cannot sleep and that she is pacing up and down the room for nervousness. The next scene shows her husband's partner calling up the husband (Clary) and telling him that he has been found to be a thief. Now this scene, in my opinion, is absolutely illegitimate and a deliberate lie. No dissolve is given, to which the audience may look back and remember, and it must be remembered that one is always present during the action of a dream. You never dream of occurrences which do not directly concern you, so the telephone episode is absolutely out. The first she learns of her husband's supposed dishonesty is when he rushes into the room and levels a revolver at her. This scene is perfectly legitimate, but none of those before it are entitled to place in a dream. It is evident that this was not noticed in production, otherwise the surprise element in this scene would have been left out.

Second — (In this case I am going into futures), If a dream is to be made satisfactory to the entire audience, it work at the Culver City studios since he supported Geraldine Farrar in three productions made in the east. Others playing with the vivid star are Harry S. Northrup, Emmett King, Beverly Travers and Ernest Pasque.

Reginald Barker's cast for the Rex Beach picture at the Goldwyn studios is a long and interesting one. Clara Horton is the leading woman and Cullen Landis plays opposite her. Others are Sydney Ainsworth, Walter McNamara, Ernest Spencer, Colin Kenny, Wilton Taylor, Billie Bennett, Hallam Cooley, Bert Sprotte and Louie Cheung.

Sets are being prepared at the Brunton studio for the use of Zane Grey's "Desert Gold" company, which has been filming the novel on location in the Colorado desert. Director T. Hayes Hunter expects to bring his cast into Los Angeles to begin work upon the interiors sometime this week.

PHRENOLOGICAL STUDIES OF PEOPLE YOU KNOW IN THE MOVIES

David Wark Griffith has a high developed mental temperament. He is a keen observer, very shrewd, cold exterior, secretive and has his emotions under control at all times. The artistic side of his nature predominates, and he is impressed by beauty of form, correct attire, and refinement. He loves detail and is never satisfied with "good enough," for to him the slightest incorrect detail is inexcusable. He is his own most exacting critic. Being very individualistic he doesn't like to follow the beaten path, and with the inventive faculty highly developed he enjoys experimenting for novel and unusual effects in his art. This faculty is shown by the prominence of the upper side of the head directly back of the temples.

LILLIAN GISH

Here we have a fine type of the mental temperament. The upper lip shows individuality. The full lips show a loving nature, but to the stranger this is not apparent, for the reason that she has a full development of causality which holds the emotions under control. This faculty is situated in the upper forehead. The eyebrows are arched high over the eyes. This shows a trustful nature. Width between the eyes shows love of form.

must appeal to the people who know something about dreams. Any advanced doctor will inform you that the period in which a dream takes place is but the smallest fraction of a second as an average, and it is highly improbable that any dream ever lasted over half a minute. The picture brings us to the conclusion that Miss Dalton dreamed from somewhere near midnight until breakfast time. This last one is not so bad as it sounds. The entire audience doesn't worry about it, and there were probably not over three or four in the house who even thought of it. The reason I'm calling attention to it here is because it's a common fault in many dream pictures. The Dalton picture is no worse than the others.

I don't give Miss Dalton any more in the picture than I give Clary. It's fifty-fifty and Mr. Clary worked much the harder of the two. But Miss Dalton was much better than in some of her recent releases.

It's a very entertaining picture, all in all, and should be a winner from all angles.

E. M. R.
Henry McRea is to be general manager of the Universal, taking the place of Wm. Siström, who is going east for the Big U interests, Joe Brandt, traveling manager of the Universal serials is coming here to make L. A. his headquarters.

Carl Laemmle leaves Monday for the east to attend to some business matters pertaining to his company.

R. A. Walsh arrives Sunday and starts directing his wife, Miriam Cooper, Monday at the Fox studios in "Evangeline."

Miss Gish would make a success as a sculptress. Fullness over the eyes shows faculty of location. Well rounded chin means strength and self assurance. Fine texture of skin and hair shows a sensitive disposition. Well balanced forehead denotes both deductive and inductive reasoning power. A little lacking in the ability to remember names is shown by a slight depression right in the middle of the forehead directly above the nose. Good development of the organ of cause and effect, situated on either side of the upper forehead gives the ability to reason out the why of things so that her acting will always show a logical reasoning portrayal, instead of a blind emotional insincerity.

CECIL B. DE MILLE

Note very high head over the ears, this denotes spirituality, ideality and high aspirations. This together with the mental temperament gives great love of the beautiful, grand, awesome, etc. A person with such development of the artistic faculties could not find pleasure in anything rough or coarse. Construction is large, see fullness at side of temples. This gives the power to devise ways and means to produce, which in Mr. De Mille's case means beautiful creations.

GERALDINE FARRAR

Miss Farrar has a well developed Motive-Mental temperament. This gives her the ability and the strength to carry out almost any amount of work she cares to undertake. In fact she can do more actual physical labor than most men. The motive temperament when accompanied with black hair shows an intense nature, and such persons generally undertake too much for their own well-being. Miss Farrar has a straight nose, well dilated nostrils, showing a fine development of lung power, this supplies her with an unlimited amount of energy. Her strong jaw further accentuates her physical power. In addition to her strength of body, Miss Farrar has a well balanced forehead which shows both reason and preception about equally developed, so that she finds no trouble in acquiring knowledge either by study or by intuition.

REX MOWBRAY.

SOCIAL FRICASSEE AND CAPER SAUCE

BY FLORENCE PORTER PARKS

HOUSE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Grassby had as their house guests last week Jessie Arnold and Fern Marshall, who were on the Orpheum bill.

MASON PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Mortimer entertained eight friends at the Mason Theater Friday night. After the theater Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer took their guests to the Alexandria for supper and the dance.

AT BALL GAME

Kathlyn Curtis bought several boxes at the Salvation Army ball game Friday, and entertained several of her society friends from San Francisco and many of the film people, with whom she became acquainted when she played the lead in "The Shepherd of the Hills."

AT PICKFORD COTTAGE

Mary Pickford was hostess Friday at an informal luncheon at her cottage on the Brunton lot. Mr. and Mrs. W. G. McAdoo were her special guests. The other guests were press people and people associated with the studio. After luncheon the party adjourned to Washington Park for the ball game.

AT ARROWHEAD

Frank Keenan and Jack Cunningham spent the week at Arrowhead Springs, resting and vacationing.

ANITA LOOS ENTERTAINS

Anita Loos was hostess at a luncheon at the Hollywood Hotel last Monday. Her guests were Kathleen O'Connor, John Emerson and Grace Kingsley. Miss Loos leaves for New York Monday.

ENTERTAINS AT DINNER DANCE

Miss Rose Neacy, publicity writer for the Universal Scenario Corporation, was hostess to a few friends Saturday at a dinner-dance at the Hotel Maryland. During the day the party was entertained with several delightful little affairs at the picturesque home of Mrs. Fern Tally in Altadena. Later in the evening the party motored to the Maryland.

MISS LEONARDT HOSTESS

Marion Leonardt assembled a chosen few Thursday evening at the Hollywood Hotel for a little private dinner party, preceding the dance given weekly at the hotel. Her table was centered with American Beauty roses. Miss Leonardt was gowned in a charming white net frock.

Her guests were Madeline Traverse, Mrs. Barbara Castleton, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Warner, Mr. Alex Scott, Silas Masters and Clyde Filmore.

WEEK-END PARTY AT BEACH

Fred Palmer and his wife, who is known as "Happy Anna" Palmer, gave a house party at their Laguna Beach home over the week-end. Edmund Mitchell, purchasing agent for the Lasky company, was the guest of honor. Those who enjoyed the hospitality of the Palmers were G. De Rue, Warren Robinson, Mrs. Harold Lockwood, Babe Emerson, Harry Edwards, Dr. R. Nichol Smith, Lucile Humbert, Harold Lockwood, Jr., and little Carmen De Rue.

MAY CRUZE MARRIED

News of a wedding of interest to the colony, which took place on St. Patrick's day, is beginning to leak out and only yesterday was confirmed.

May Cruze, sister of Jimmie Cruze, director for Wallace Reid, was married to Robert L. Gollner on St. Patrick's day, at 3 o'clock at the court house. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James Myers.

The young couple succeeded in keeping their marriage a secret until the last few days. When friends learned of the marriage they in turn surprised Mr. and Mrs. Gollner by dropping in Thursday night with gifts and a wedding supper all prepared, with even the cateress ready to serve it. The Gollners have taken a charming little bungalow in El Centro street where they will make their home.

"DUG OUTT" GIRLS

The girls of the Dug Out, at 1848 Morgan Place, have totaled $1313.13 from the sale of doughnuts for the Salvation Army. C. C. Hall turned his grocery store, at 6382 Hollywood boulevard, over to the girls last Wednesday, buying the first doughnuts himself, for which he paid $10. The girls also sold the famous doughnuts on the downtown streets. Those who took active part in the sales under the supervision of "Mother" Meredith were Edna May Wilson, Agnes Lynch, Yvette Mitchell, Betty Peterson, Bernice Allen, Larna Avery, Elinor Bamber, Constance Yates, Florence Praeger and Evelyn Adamson.

AT PHELPS' HOME

One of the pleasant social affairs of the past week was that given by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Phelps at their home in Culver City. An evening of music and dancing, accompanied by a jazzy orchestra, preceded a midnight supper of huge proportions. The home was beautifully decorated with yellow flowers, the same color being carried out in the crepe paper ribbons stretched from the chandelier to the four corners of the room, and in the fluted paper lamp shades. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries, Jane Sherman, Arline Manning, Eliza Casey, Valeria Jenontrez, Earl Lynn, Billy Burran, Eric Von Stroheim and others.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Sara Mason entertained with a dinner, Monday night, at the Studio Club. It was Miss Mason's birthday, and a great white cake bearing lighted tapers, marked her place at the table. Pink and white sweetpeas carried out the color scheme and dainty little ladies wearing Easter bonnets were the clever favors.

Those present were Mrs. Mason, from Tuscon, Arizona, who is visiting her daughter, Sara, and Joan Boisen. Za Su Pitts, Helen Eddy, Marjorie Daw, Chafe Herenden, Nell Newman, Lucita Squires, Violet Clark, Agnes Johnston, Gladys Parley, Alice Mitchell and Madga Lane.

A PRETTY WEDDING

A very pretty but quiet wedding was solemnized last Wednesday at the Church of the Angels at Garvanza, when Margaret Copeland was married to Martin Best. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harry Thompson at high noon.

Miss Copeland was gowned in white georgette with hat to match, and carried bride's roses. The church organist played the wedding march, and soft music during the reading of the service.

A wedding luncheon at the Pig'n Whistle followed for the family and close friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Best will make their home at 761 East Kensington road.

CAMPFIRE PARTY

Zane Grey gave a campfire party at Palm Springs one night last week while the company was there on location. The decorations were plenty of choya cactus, which was uncomfortably near, and one log for the seat of honor. Desert stars hung low in lieu of lamps. Music was supplied at intervals by Mr. Grey's four pack donkeys. The refreshments were tobacco only—several brands of smoking and chewing. The feature of the evening's entertainment was the tales of adventure told by Zane Grey. The guests were Eltinge F. Warner, publisher and owner of Field and Stream, Smart Set and other publications; Eileen Percy; R.

C. Prey; Nelson, Mr. Prey's guide; Tom Doyle, an Arizona rancher; a Morongo Indian, name unknown; and Jay Chapman, the poor press agent.

SUNDAY AFTERNOON

MUSICAL

The Hayakawa home in Argyle street was converted into a veritable bower of fragrant cherry blossoms a week ago Sunday afternoon, when Mr. and Mrs. Sessue Hayakawa entertained about four hundred guests, complimenting Tamaki Miura, who appeared at the Mason last week with her Metropolitan company.

A musical program of unusual interest was offered the guests, several talented members of Tamaki Miura's company taking part.

NEW CLUB ROOMS

The Assistant Directors Association met Friday night for the first time in their spacious suite of offices at 5444 Hollywood boulevard. The club rooms are elaborately furnished in mahogany and reed, and comprise a library replete with research data, which is open all day to all members, a billiard hall, a lounging room, with every comfort relative to mere man's enjoyment, offices and ante-room. A monthly banquet and installation of new members will alternate with a monthly dance, to which friends of the members will be invited. Different production managers, stars and others from various branches of the industry will be invited to speak, including the local exhibitors who will give the exhibitor's viewpoint. The club has been organized for the development of better picture making. It is not a union.

GOVERNMENT WILL SHOW

PICTURES THROUGH NATION

TO AID VICTORY LOAN

WASHINGTON, April 3.—Resources of the motion picture industry have been mobilized for the Victory Liberty Loan drive, beginning April 21. The treasury announced that appeals which would be conveyed to bond buyers by the silent drama would form the most extensive propaganda campaign ever conducted by means of the screen theatres.

More than 2,000,000 feet of film will be employed in explaining the necessity for buying bonds, "and more bonds" now that the war has been won. All of the film has been supplied by producers at the cost of manufacturing, it was said, and the film likewise will be exhibited by theatres without charge to the government.

Show Battle Scenes

Chief among the productions will be a 5000-foot film, "The Price of Peace," which virtually is a photographic record of how the country's billions were spent. It contains thrilling battle scenes, many of which heretofore have been under the ban of the censor and shown only to military authorities. Among the incidents are the first American attack on Chateau Thierry, a German plane being destroyed in the air, a field piece with its crew being wiped out by a shell and American soldiers keeping watch in the Rhine.

This film was made by army signal corps photographers, and because it is so vital a record of what American troops did in the war it will not be shown at theatres but will be exhibited in public halls with admission free. To assure wide distribution, 150 copies of the film have been made.

NEW TELEGRAPH CORRESPONDENT

Miss Margaret Ellinger of New York City is now located in the Markham building in Hollywood as the local correspondent of the New York Morning Telegraph. Her telephone has not yet been installed but the address is 320 Markham building.

HELEN JEROME EDDY

By Florence Porter Parks

Helen Eddy's personality does not present itself in dynamic fashion, instead it steals into your consciousness with a repressed magnetism. A girl's wholesomeness, combined with a retiring piquancy impresses you. Instinctively you know that she is going to do something big, that trivialities do not absorb her mentality excluding the light of more serious things.

She is a product of the Los Angeles public schools, and the University of Southern California, and in addition had three years of dramatic training in the Eagan School. And it was while in the throes of the Greek Myths at the University that she wrote her first scenario, which she submitted to Captain Melville at Lubins. When he promptly declined to produce it Helen thought less of the Captain and of the Lubin Company, but when he straightway gave her a part in a two-reel picture called "The Twig that is Bent" she thought better of him and his judgment. She signed a six months' contract with Lubin, doing twenty-two pictures with Captain Melville.

Then Helen Eddy was signed by the Morosco Company, remaining there two and a half years, terminating her contract on the Lasky lot. She did seven pictures opposite George Behan, and also took part in Cecil de Mille's "Old Wives for New."

She free lanced awhile then, doing a couple of pictures with Monroe Salisbury, and one with Henry Walthall. In "The Turn in the Road" produced by King Vidor, a picture which had an eight weeks' run at a local theatre, Helen Eddy walked away with the picture which was billed as an all-star cast.

At present she is playing a part out of her usual characterization, suggestive of rollicking comedy. It is a Lasky picture titled "A Very Good Man," with Bryant Washburn in the lead.

One of her hobbies, if it can be called a hobby, is the Community Theatre in Hollywood where she has appeared in several sketches, the most recent being opposite Henry Walthall in "Bushido," a Japanese tragedy. Her other hobby is jewelry and copper work, having executed some very good designs.

"The story is the thing," Miss Eddy declares. "It is hard to have Nazimova, Walthall, and other of your favorites, to say nothing of stars of lesser magnitude, thrust down your throat, without a story, just because they must have a vehicle. I am not an advocate of the star system, but rather of a well-rounded cast with a play or story worthy of their portrayal."

Genius is merely a capacity for taking infinite pains, and Miss Eddy has demonstrated this to a marked degree. In order to establish a firm foundation for her ambition by getting a more intimate idea of her work she served a self-imposed apprenticeship in cutting and assembling pictures. In Miss Eddy's estimation, ambition is single-mindedness of thought and purpose combined with incessant application, and eternal sacrifice. That the goal of success can not be gained by fitful endeavors, but only by a consistent building up of every attribute you possess. The history of the lives of our great artists substantiates this theory.

Helen Eddy's ultimate aim is the legitimate stage. She feels that the time is not far distant when the spoken and silent drama will amalgamate in some artistic manner, through the efforts of some genius.

WHERE TO FIND THE PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Pick-ups Of The Staff

Elsie Jane Wilson, who was injured sometime ago, is in hopes that she can soon resume her work at the studio. About a month ago she was taking a walk about the neighborhood with her great mastiff on a chain, which she had buckled about her wrist. The mastiff suddenly conceived the idea that the pace was far too slow for him and he straightway dashed off at top speed, throwing his mistress against a stone wall and breaking several ribs. She was in the hospital for about a month and still has to take life easy, which is a trial for any one as active as Elsie Jane Wilson.

Rupert Julian is working on a story for Monroe Salisbury, whom he is directing. The plot of the story is laid in New York City, and also embraces the life of the west which is particularly adapted to Mr. Salisbury's type.

Jane Tallent, who is under contract to the William Ott's company, returned last week from Tonopah, Nev., where she has been on location for the past three weeks. Miss Tallent says that it snowed the entire time the company was there, and that it was quite a lark for a California girl to wade through great snow drifts.

Maude George finished with the Earle Williams company last week.

T. H. Gibson-Gowland is working at Universal under Eric Von Stroheim's direction. Mr. Gibson-Gowland's four-year-old son, Peter, is also in the cast.

Arthur Forde is back on the Fox lot again, having recovered from a nervous breakdown. Mr. Forde spent several weeks at Elsinore in an effort to recover his strength.

Bertram Grassby is working with Peggy Hyland at the Fox studio.

Gerald Alexander finished last week with the Gladys Brockwell company. She took the part of Miss Brockwell's mother.

J. A. Berst, president of the United Picture Theaters Corporation, after nine weeks of activity in Los Angeles, left for New York last week. He will return within a few weeks and at that time will have an important announcement to make that will be of interest to the industry. Is he going to open another studio in the colony?

C. E. Thurston, who is now with the Edwin Frazee company, appeared on the screen at three different local theaters, at the Alhambra, the Garrick and Grauman's.

Margaret Ettinger will arrive in Los Angeles next week to represent the New York Telegraph. She was associated with Al Cohn on the Photoplay in Chicago at one time.

Lucille Zintheo has changed her name to Lucille Carlisle. She is now leading woman for Larry Semon. Miss Carlisle won the national beauty contest of the Photoplay Magazine last year.

Dick Willis and Gus Inglis spent several days last week at Santa Barbara at the American Film company.

Mrs. Henry King and her daughter were in Los Angeles over the weekend.

Joseph Franklyn Poland, writer of Mary Miles Minter's recent stories, completed "Tiger Lady" last week, which will be Miss Minter's next feature.

Maje Hopkins, by profession designer of Theda Bara's gowns, has had very little to do of late, for Theda has taken to seaweed and pearls, so he has turned his attention to the writing of stories for Theda. The one just completed, "A Woman There Was," took him three nights to write. The beginning is a comedy, the middle a drama, and the ending a tragedy, everybody dies. Mr. Hopkins says that the third night he wrote the ending, and he was sleepy and by killing everybody off he obtained a few hours rest. The picture will be released April 15th.

Lois Wilson begins work with Dustin Farnum Monday.

Ernest Shipman arrived in Los Angeles last week. The principal object of his visit is to settle the estate of Nell Shipman's father who passed away recently. Miss Shipman is in San Francisco finishing scenes for the Oliver Curwood story. Wheeler Oakman has signed up for the lead to replace Ronald Buram, who is still too ill to work.

Will Herford, the little white haired extra, is an occasional contributor of verse. He is a brother of Oliver and Beatrice Herford.

Enid Bennett, the Thomas H. Ince photoplay star, has just purchased a new home in the Beverly Hills district of Los Angeles, which she expects to occupy about the middle of April. She is now busily engaged buying furniture and draperies. The new home is surrounded by some beautiful landscape gardens and is within a short distance of the mountains.

George J. Tuckett is appearing in a Christie comedy.

It is rumored that Winifred Westover has received an offer to go to South America to appear in pictures for a Spanish producer.

Mr. Noel Smith has joined the Vitagraph directorial forces and is now at work directing Jimmy Aubrey in Vitagraph Big V comedies.

Before coming to Vitagraph Mr. Smith was associated with Fate Lehrman.

Billie West has completed his first picture at the Vitagraph under the title of "The Artist." Mr. West is supported by Ethelyn Gibson and F. Stanton Heck and was assisted in the direction of the picture by Charlie Avery.

It is rumored that Al Cohn will represent the Hollywood Studio Club at the State Y. W. C. A. convention.

James Harrison, who before the war was a Christie juvenile, dropped in from France, where he was with the 55th Ammunition Train, Am. E. F. Jimmie will no doubt soon appear in another Christie picture. While in France Jimmie told some of the boys around the barracks at Mons that he was an actor. They didn't believe him until Jimmie led the gang into Paris one Saturday night and showed them a Christie comedy.

Nazimova's cameraman, Eugene Gaudio, wears the button of the newly organized American society of Cinematographers on his lapel, and now when he shoots a rain scene someone has to hold an umbrella over him.

Dave Thompson, Metro's studio manager, says he is going to rise in the world and take Ray Smallwood, the photographic chief, and Edward Shulter and M. P. Stauleup of the technical department with him. Two stories of offices are being constructed over the one-story concrete generator house, and when they are completed all four will move in.

Hale Hamilton blew into the Metro studios Wednesday after two weeks in the Grand Canyon of Arizona.

Frank X. Finnegan is the latest addition to the Goldwyn scenario staff and is responsible for the script of Pauline Frederick's present production. Mr. Finnegan, known as a writer of short stories, abandoned New York for Hollywood three seasons ago and until recently was with Lasky.

Mr. Wm. Clifford has just returned from San Francisco, where he has been taking scenes aboard a government boat.

Wm. Farnum has left for Palm Springs.

Theda Bara is going to be under the management of Charles Brabin.

Wanda Hawley is playing lead opposite Wallace Reid.

Tom Ashton is now at Metro.

The Robert Brunton studios are rapidly becoming one of the most beautiful motion picture plants in the world. A high brick retaining wall encloses the front line of the studio grounds. The commissary building is now being covered with rose and honeysuckle vines. All the thoroughfares of the lot are being provided with cement curbing and gravel walks.

"Brass Buttons," William Russell's latest release, has been booked for the Rivoli, New York's best theater, for April 9th.

Fred Bond, who supported William Ott as the heavy in the recent William Ott feature "Nevada," which is to be released here shortly, came back to Los Angeles yesterday after a strenuous four weeks spent in Tonopah, Nev., with the company on location.

Mr. Bond has made quite a reputation for himself as a "fighter," having been given "roughhouse" parts with Douglas Fairbanks, Warren Kerrigan and other western stars.

Georgia Woodthorpe, who earned the distinction of being the youngest Ophelia when she played the part with Edwin Booth many years ago, has supported several of the leading lights of the stage. She portrayed the drunken aunt in "Zaza" which she played with Florence Roberts for seven years. With an enthusiasm apparently increased rather than lessened by her years before the footlights, Miss Woodthorpe has recently gone into pictures, accepting an engagement to play a young old lady in King Vidor's Brentwood production.

David Butler, son of Fred J. Butler, for thirteen years stage director of the Alcazar Theater, San Francisco, and himself a member of the Alcazar Stock company which included Bessie Barriscale, Howard Hickman, Bert Lytell and Louis Bennison, has been engaged for a particularly fitting athletic part in the new comedy drama which King W. Vidor is now producing for the Brentwood.

Zasu Pitts, who has an important part in King Vidor's new Brentwood feature, "Better Times," came by her very original name quite honestly. She did not manufacture it as a press aid to screen popularity. It was thrust upon her even as yours and mine were foisted upon us by doting parents. Miss Pitts had an Aunt Eliza and an Aunt Susan. Anxious to play no favorites Miss Pitts' mother took the last syllable of Eliza and the first of Susan and from the twain made ZaSu.

Hugh Fay is the latest recruit to the airplane brigade of motion picture people. He is the proud possessor of an air-wagon and of a record to date of sixty hours up aloft, declares that aviation has motoring backed clean off the boards as a truly thrilling sport. He is diligently preparing himself and his machine for a race over the La Brea course to which he proposes challenging Mr. de Mille.

Having completed "Wolves of the Night" with William Farnum and "The Spite Bride" with Olive Thomas, the one at Fox and the other at the Brunton plant in Hollywood, Irene Rich is back at Fox again with Gladys Brockwell.

J. B. Chapman says: We notice that two new producing companies have been organized under the same general management, to produce under the author's own supervision the works of Stewart Edward White and Zane Grey. An altogether poor pun suggests itself: Other famous novelists will join the "produce your own book" movement. Undoubtedly they will be Messrs. Black, Brown and Green.

Tom Bates has finished with Bob Vignola at Morosco, in support of Vivian Martin. He is now with the Gladys Brockwell company, under the direction of E. J. Le Saint.

WITHOUT CLOTHES

Joe Rock, Vitagraph director, was on location the other day, when a voice came over the telephone from one of the powers that be.

"Say, Joe, I'm sending out a lady for you to use in the street car scenes at Sherman. Her name is Josephine, and she is some actress."

"How'll I know her?" demanded Joe. "What will she have on?"

"A hat and a coat," said the voice. "That's all."

"That's all!" gasped Joe. "Say, this is no steal from Salome—"

But the voice had hung up.

Joe went out to Sherman in great trepidation, and when he told Pearl Chappelle of the prospective advent of "Josephine" in nothing but a hat and coat, Pearl said she was a lady, and that she didn't intend to be compromised by being in such company.

Just then a large man strolled over to Joe and asked if this was the place where Josephine was to come. Pearl sniffed and stalked away.

Joe Rock said it was, but if the lady was just wearing a coat and hat couldn't she—that is, wouldn't it be better—

"She ain't got nothing on right now," said the large man composedly. "But I've got her things right here—"

"No, no!" cried the panic-stricken director. "I'm afraid I can't use her."

Just then there was a movement somewhere in the voluminous coat pocket of the large man, and a tiny wrinkled face peeped out, followed by a brown hand that stretched out toward the astonished Joe in an appeal for pennies.

"This is Josephine," said the man, letting the monkey come out of his pocket and clamber up on his shoulder.

"Oh, well, that's different," said Joe, wiping his moist forehead. "Boy, page Miss Chappelle and tell her that the Josephine scandal was monkey-business."

Style Accents

By Vigee

This year there is a new knitted idea introduced in sweaters. This is hand crocheted or knitted open lace design wool, forming the front of a slip or open front sleeveless sweater with the back and sash of heavy jersey weave.

Sport suits are of this character in some instances and a skirt with tunic having a deep band of this crocheted or knitted wool matches the sweater. This is really the new note of the season in sweater ideas.

Light mohair sweaters in delicate colorings accompany the skirts of Kumsi-Kussa, Fan-tasi, Dewkist and Paulette satin, while the knitted skirts often have an open front sweater coat with collar and cuffs of angora or high-colored jersey cloth.

Knitted silk plaid sweater coats and two-tone effects have skirts of the same material. The plaid designs are unlimited, which makes for exclusiveness and individuality.

To a skirt having Oxford gray for its leading shade on a white ground relieved by a scarlet stripe, they show a coat sweater of the same material or plain scarlet in a novelty weave.

The two-tone effects are attractive also, one model in sapphire blue with gold background shimmering through, having its skirt made with panel front, into which solid stripes of the gold are woven horizontally. There is an open center vest of plain blue in the coat, which is two-toned.

One of the novelties which has proven successful is a two-piece sleeveless slipover, looped together at the sides and fastened similarly on the shoulders. Silk tassels tip the broad self sash on this knitted suit, which is shown in solid tones.

CHIT, CHAT AND CHATTER

By Harry Burns

Stanley Blystone is the new casting director at the Bull's Eye studio and is booking artists for the Chas. J. Parrott productions which has Lee White, Harry Mann, and Marie Bianci as the comics and a good cast. There is a rumor afloat at that studio that Leo White is soon to direct. It sounds good and should develop into a profitable affair for all concerned.

Allan Watt, who is the head of the Assistant Directors Association, was greeted by quite a gathering of the clans who assist in the making of the Southland's film productions, Friday evening at the regular meeting at the organization's new quarters located at 5444 Hollywood Boulevard. After new members were given the once-over the order of business of the night was put into effect. President Allan Watt welcomed all present, capping his speech by making a motion that the association send a letter of thanks to CAMERA! for the stand it took in defending Jack Pickford, for he personally knew that Jack was clear of being guilty of any of the charges, for he himself saw his discharge papers. It was met with great approval by all present. For the rest of the evening, there was a great vaudeville show and plenty to eat and drink and all went home, satisfied that good fellowship and co-operation were on the right road, among the busy bodies of the studios and that the meeting was a great success.

James Marcus, right hand man of R. A. Walsh, arrived in Los Angeles and is ready to start the ball a-rolling for Raoul when the chief lands here Monday and starts working at the Fox studio. Mr. Marcus stands in a class by himself as an assistant for he is a trouper that has played leading parts and at the same time handles the production end of the Director Walsh subjects with a master hand.

Louis Chaudet is to hike to New York City with Billy Parsons and Billie Rhodes and make a couple of comedies for the National, which should give Director Chaudet a nice trip and a chance to meet a lot of old friends and make many new ones. About the time this goes to press, I expect they will be wending their way towards New York.

Hank Mann has been visiting his many friends about the studios, and has had fully six different producers of comedies on his heels with offers to go to work, but Hank isn't ready just yet, wishing to become acclimated and get acquainted with his charming wife, who hasn't seen him for many a day. His future actions will be watched with interest.

W. S. Campbell has written finis to the second comedy that he produced for the Universal, and the reports, give Director Campbell credit for turning out a masterful laugh producing story, full of thrills and comedy situations that have never before been done in a two-reel production. Great credit is due Dora Rogers, Bob McKenzie and Rube Miller for the excellent work they did, while Joe the Monk, and Charley the Elephant, are said to be a riot from start to finish.

Hampton Del Ruth is making 'em sit up and take notice out at Fox's. The way he is turning out comedies, makes the old timers think they are back on the Sennett lot.

Billy Mason, who originated the front handle monacher of "Smiling," is at work at the Universal in one-reel comedies with Neva Gerber, being directed by Roy Clements, who replaced Ben Wilson who was called East on account of his mother's illness.

Jack Doyle, ruler of the four-round fistic tilts de luxe, is a very much put-out man these days, for someone published a story to the effect that Vernon was closed to the movies, meaning that no moving picture company could go and take any scenes in the city limits of Vernon.

"To the contrary," chirps Jack, "we want the companies to come and take what we have to offer in the way of locations and environments that go to make their pictures. I know the trustees are just as anxious as I am to have the boys come to Vernon and obtain the scenes they need so long as there is no propaganda behind the story that might work against the government future of our community, why should we refuse permission to the greatest industry that California harbors today?" And that about hits Mr. Knock about dead, don't you think so?

Bob McGowan is working hard to write stories for Carter De Haven and Bill Parsons. He will direct Carter De Haven, alternating with Bill Sieter. That is the extent of his labor, but the bank roll is swelling every week and he should worry.

Helen Gibson found a regular trouper to work opposite when she was cast with Pete Morrisson, the latest find in western actors, who is being featured in two-reel stories of the plains.

Mitchell Lewis, Jr., dressed in his military outfit, is a great youngster to feast one's eyes upon, when he is walking with Papa Mitchell at the Universal, where the latter is producing a western picture in which Fritzi Brunette plays the girl.

Stuart Payton is at Santa Monica where he has transformed the Goodwin Cafe into a moving picture studio, is already working his company, which includes our old villain-actor, Harry Carter, and others of an equal rating in filmland.

Fred Fishbeck has put all rumors to an end by going to work at the L-KO, where he is to make 10 two-reelers. He has Earl Olin as his technical director. Since the company allows Mister Fishbeck so much per picture, his ambition to make good will cause him to spend enough for each production to make it a real one.

S. A. Franklin, his right hand bower Ward Lascalle, and their wives took a fishing trip Sunday. They chartered a real boat and went out to sea, so that they could rest their weary brains, and be full of pep to direct the sweet Mary Pickford in her present picture. So when S. A. and Ward return, the Bruntonites better have a care for they will be up and at 'em like wildcats.

Beatrice Lovejoy reports that she will be in the next animal comedy picture produced at the Universal, and expects to make her stay with that company a long one, for there are a number of stories lined up that suit her to a nicety, and she doesn't know what fear is, when it comes to working with the wild beasts.

Albert Ray is acting like a real star. He no more than landed in a top berth with the William Fox Co. than he was given publicity from Sqweedunk to Frisco that he no longer is to be known as Al Ray, but Albert if you please, and now he has gone and done it. He is about to be married and be happy ever afterwards, so, if you will note Albert knows his biz, he isn't taking any chances of going wrong. Good luck to you, and more power, Albert.

Madame Yorska, they say is to remake her last picture since she has had her nose operated on, and expects the change to make her story improve even more than her features have since the operation. Madame has many friends here who will greet this announcement with honest to goodness joy, for when she was here before, she made life worth while for a lot of folk about the Brunton studio.

Vic Potel announces that the old trio in the Snakeville Series is about to be reunited and produce pictures for a well-known corporation. Outside of Vic there are Mr. and Mrs. Todd in the troupe, and the usual cast that goes with their pictures. Let's go Vic and may success greet you on every side.

Del Harris, who plays an important part in the William Duncan serial, says they expect to finish in about ten days, and that no one knows as yet just what is in store for them for the next story. Del has done excellent work in "The Man of Might," which they now have in the making at the V studio.

Edward Frazee is the one fellow who can come back. He is at the William Clifford studio producing comedies like E. F. has produced for some of the leading companies. But, he has always wanted to be out on his own hook and that is just what he is doing right now. Joe Murphy, that hustling feller of propville, is with Frazee and should be a great help to him.

Chas. Lynn. You know who he is? Why that is our old friend Chas. Conklin who used to make funny faces into the Fox cameras, but who changed his monacher to please Mack Sennett so that he could appear in the same pictures that Chester Conklin works in and not confuse theatregoers as to who is who. He puts over one of the funniest characters in "Yankee Doodle in Berlin" and should be given credit for it.

Walter De Coursey quit the Fox Co. and George Webster has taken his place as assistant to Edward Le Saint, the former has been with the Fox folks for some time and expects to go to work with a well-known star at the Brunton studio.

Dusty Farnum, they tell me, is cutting all braces and is getting ready to start working at the Brunton studio in an entire brand new story that will offer him proper opportunities to disport his acting wares.

Wm. Ely, who handles the casting at Brunton's, found time enough to slip up to the Assistant Directors meeting Friday evening. How he manages to do that is the mystery of film row, for he was forced to have painted on his office door a big sign "Keep Out" with a skull and cross bones to warn those that enter of the danger they are facing, so ye sons of cinema land heed the warning, unless you actually have to bother the fellow that they say is the busiest man in Los Angeles.

William Greenberger, who casts the artists out at the Universal is in the midst of a hard siege of work. Directors Allan Holubar, Rupert Julian, Paul Powell, Jas. W. Horne and an even dozen companies are all casting from time to time, types, artists, and troupers. Everything that goes to aid a picture outside of extras is up to her, and she is working single-handed, so it's not a job, it's a POSITION she is holding down.

My — Advise — To — Cinema — Workers — About — Camera's — Anniversary — Number — Has — Awakened — A — Lot — Of — People — They — Are — Phoning — Writing — Talking — To — Me — About — Giving — Me — Orders — Promises — And — Say — They — Realize — It's — The — Greatest — Bargain — Ever — Offered — To — Motion — Picture — Workers — Players — Producers — Theatres — Merchants — And — Who — Ever I — Might — Have — Overlooked. Get in the band wagon and parade with the live ones is my final shot I fire to those connected with the greatest of all industries.

CHAPLIN CAUSE OF DIVORCE

A wire from the United Press informed the swivel-chair occupants at the Chaplin studio last week that Charlie Chaplin was the innocent cause of a divorce in Portland, April 2nd. Lena Grippen was given her freedom from Charles Grippen, her husband, because he threw her out of the house when she insisted that her little son see a Chaplin film.

When apprised of being the cause of the sad state of affairs Charlie Chaplin was quite unhappy and was lost in thought for sometime, then he suddenly exclaimed: "Gee! But I'll bet that's 'some' boy."

CINEMA LICENSE WITHHELD

On complaint brought by the Motion Picture Players Union, Deputy Labor Commissioner Cable has held up the license of the Cinema Exchange or Motion Picture Producers Service Bureau, or whatever you call it, until instructions arrive from San Francisco.

At the hearing held in Mr. Cable's office, several players testified that they had been hired by studios and were forced to go to 616½ South Hill street for their checks.

Further testimony on the part of one young lady showed that Horace Williams had tried to secure her for a part in which she should get into bed with a man and conduct herself as an adulteress. She said she replied to the request by slapping Mr. William's face.

At the close of the hearing, Mr. Cable said he would withhold the operating license until he had received word from San Francisco.

ALLER PATENT ON THE MARKET

The following Eastman Kodak Company publicity concerns the invention of Joseph Aller, of the Griffith Laboratories, the patent being leased to the Eastman company with sole rights of manufacture:

"The Eastman Kodak Company has just made an important improvement in its perforated negative motion picture film. Hereafter all negative stock perforated by the company will be furnished, without extra cost, with consecutive edge numbers, one foot apart, which will appear upon development on the opposite edge from the usual words 'Eastman Kodak,' as, for example, '10001,' '10002,' '10003.'

"By a simple change in the printing machine, which is accomplished by cutting a slit 5-64ths of an inch wide on the left side of the aperture plate, the measuring numbers can be printed and made to appear on the edge of the finished positive. The figures will run from 0 to 99999 before being duplicated.

"The advantage of this system of consecutively registering the footage of the negative and positive, is in its application to the final cutting and assembling of the successive scenes which portray or carry out the action of the story, and in addition will be invaluable when selecting scenes for duplicate prints or re-orders for making repairs.

Simplifies Assembling

"The method of locating the portion or portions of each negative scene to be used for final printing has been heretofore to compare the negative with such marks or checks as have been placed on the positive after decision on the action and footage to be used has been determined by projection.

"This method aside from being slow and tedious, particularly in the cutting and assembling of large productions, also entails frequent and often serious damage to the negative, due to the image becoming scratched or otherwise marred as the result of constant handling when comparing the negative with the positive. It is also expensive because specially skilled labor is required.

"Eastman edge numbered perforated negative motion picture film materially cheapens and simplifies the cutting and assembling, and also does away with the possibility of selecting the wrong scene, particularly if selection has to be made from among several re-takes. For example: scene No. 15 begins with footage figures 26530 and runs thirty-six feet to 26566. If re-takes are made on the same roll the numbers will be higher or possibly run into a new roll having entirely different numbers: as, for instance, thirty-six feet from 8216 to 8252.

"When it has been decided to use a particular scene and the first print has been made, it is then only necessary to rewind the negative of that scene to find the footage numbers which have been marked or checked on the positive of that scene as described above, and thus quickly arrive within the space of one foot of the point at which it has been decided to cut the action. In other words, it is simply a case of following the figures even though the action carries through several rolls each bearing entirely different figures."

The Pulse of the Studio

Copyright pending

Reported and Arranged by Arthur Stuart

DIRECTOR	STAR	CAMERAMAN	ASSISTANT	PROP. MAN	TYPE	PROG.
AMERICAN FILM CO. Santa Barbara.
Henry King	Wm. Russell	J. Sietz	Sid Algiers	Chet Rodgers	Modern	Middle
Roy Neill	Mar. Fisher	E. Haller	S. Hall	F. Cavens	Comedy Drama	Finished
Emmet Flynn	Mary M. Minter	G. Irish	Geo. Crone	K. Helwig	Modern	Starting
ANTA STEWART CO. Geo. Richelaive, casting. 4634 Santa Monica Blvd. Wilshire 5174
Marshall Neilan	Anita Stewart	Cronjager-Gaudio	Al Green	T. Held	Drama	Location
ASTRA. C. Rehfeld, casting. C. Rehfeld, Buyer. Verdugo Road Glendale 902
Paul Hurst	Roland-Larkin	H. Hardie	M. Parrott	McClesch	Serial	11th Episode
BRUNION. W. Ely, casting. 5300 Melrose. H. H. Coleman, Buyer. Holly 4080
W. Worthington	All-Star	Frank Williams	Geo. Berthelow		Modern	Starting
Jack Dillon	Hayakawa	Sol Polito	Cameron Smith		Small Town	2nd Week
Geo. L. Tucker	F. Keenan	Philip E. Rosen	Don O'Brien		Modern	Finished
Chas. Giblin	All Star	L. Physioc	F. Ormston		Comedy-Drama	Finishing
W.P. & F. Earle	Jack Pickford	A. Edeson	Nat Deverish		Drama	Finished
T. Hayes Hunter	Olive Thomas	J. Seitz			Western	6th Week
E. Sloman	C. K. Young	C. Kauffman	F. Gerhety		Modern	5th Week
E. Ward	All Star	Guy Wilkie	F. Croft		Modern	Finished
H. Hickman	B. Barriscale	B. Newhard	H. Schenck		Western	4th Week
Henry Kolker	Alma Rubens	H. Scott	E. Howe		Western	Started
T. H. Heffron	D. Farnum	Lewis Stone			N. Woods	5th Week
BULL'S EYE COMEDY. M. H. Spitzer. 1329 Gordon. Gus Schumacher, Buyer. Holly 1918
Chas. Parrott	Harry Mann	L. J. Burrud	W. S. Blystone	C. Morehouse	Comedy	1st Week
BRENTWOOD STUDIO. W. Barrows, casting. 4811 Fountain. Holly 3266
King Vidor	Star Cast	W. H. Thorne	R. Morgan	J. R. Dugan	Comedy-Drama	4th Week
CHAPLIN. Edward A. Biby, casting. 1420 La Brea. Holly 4070
Chaplin	Chaplin	R. Tothoroh	Albert Austin	Joe Van Meter	Comedy	Finished
CHRISTIE FILMS. Jimmy Clemens, casting. 6101 Sunset. Holly 3100
Al Christie	Fay Tincher	A. Nagy	J. Clemens	D. McLish	Feature Comedy	Finishing
W. Beaudine	Bobbie Vernon	W. J. Peltz	H. Beaudine	H. Hathaway	Comedy	Weekly
FATTY ARBUCKLE COMEDIES. L. Anger, Buyer. L. Anger, 1723 Allesandro St., Wilshire 3228
Fatty Arbuckle	Fatty Arbuckle				Comedy	4th Week
FAIRBANKS. R. P. Fairbanks, casting. Bronson & Melrose. L. L. Baxter, Buyer. Holly 4356
Albert Parker	Fairbanks	Vic Flemming	Macquarie-Coe	Paul Burns	Western	Waiting
J. Honaberry
FOX. L. Seiler, casting. Sunset and Western. Holly 3000
Wm. C. Dolan	Peggy Hyland	Jennings	Eliphant	E. Billings	Society	2nd Week
Art Rosson	Tom Mix	F. F. Baker		R. Patee	Comedy Drama	2nd Week
Harry Millarde	Madeline Trav-	Frank Good	Bill Crinley	Otto Freis	Drama	2nd Week
Ed Le Saint	Gladys Brockwell	Fred Granville	Walter DeCourcy	Ed Ellis	Society Crook	2nd Week
Vic Herman	Star Cast	P. Reis	C. Sovern	A. Alt	Comedy	2nd Week
Jack Blythstone	Star Cast	Len Powers	Joe Bordeaux	A. Alt	Comedy	2nd Week
Scotty Dunlap	Al Ray & E. Fair	Roy Klaffki	R. Rosson		Comedy-Drama	4th Week
H. Griffen	All-Star	H. De Pue	Al Stein		Comedy	Started
J. G. Edwards	W. Farnum	J. Boyle	Al Smith		Drama	1st Week
FROHMAN AMUSEMENT CO. L. Meehan, casting. Boyle and Stephenson Ave. Boyle 1508
Cliff Smith	Texas Guinan	Steve Rounds	Lew Meehan	E. Johnson	Western Drama	3rd Week
GOLDWYN. Clifford Robertson, casting. Culver City. L. H. Buell, Buyer. West 6780
Reg. Barker	Star Cast	Oliver Marsh	C. Stallings	Doc Sherry	Rex Beach	3rd Week
C. Badger	Madge Kennedy	M. Le Picard	Carlye Moore	J. Leslie	Comedy-Drama	3rd Week
H. Beaumont	Tom Moore	Geo. Webber	Tom Reagan	R. Chapin	Society	2nd Week
John A. Barry	Frederick	Edward Gheller	Milton Gardner		Drama	3rd Week
V. Schertzing	Mabel Normand	P. Hilburn	Arthur Rose		Drama	3rd Week
GRIFFITH. George Beranger, casting. 4500 Sunset Blvd. Sid Koster. Holly 2800
D. W. Griffith	Griffith Stock	G. W. Bitzer	Geo. Beranger	Sid Koster		6th Week
HART. H. J. Howard. 1215 Bates. H. J. Howard, Buyer. Holly 1482
Lambert Hillyer	Wm. S. Hart	Joe August	R. Broadwell	B. Jackson	Western	3rd Week
HORSLEY STUDIO. Individual casting. Main and Washington. 22888
Francis Ford	Francis Ford	J. Ash	P. Gerald	A. Trout	Serial	2nd Episode
JESSE D. HAMPTON PRODUCTIONS. 1425 Flemming. E. I. Smith. Holly 4330

Casting Directory

Copyright Applied For.

In order to be listed in this column, it is necessary that you be sufficiently well known locally that there shall be no doubt as to your ability to play the parts for which you are listed. If you have not appeared in the films recently, it will be necessary to bring proof that you have successfully filled the part under which you wish to be listed.

This presentation is taken as a safeguard for this paper and for the people who are capable. Further, this presentation has been suggested to us by casting directors, as the column was indicated chiefly for their information.

Abbreviations: Characters (ch.); Heavies (hvy.); Juveniles (jvn.); Foreign (for.); Lucratives (luc.).

Changes in this column must be reported to the office of CAMERA, not later than Friday of each week. Charge for listing, including change each week, is $1.00 for two months.

Name	Reference	Available	Phone
CHARACTERS
Adolph Lestina	Griff.	Indef.	Holly
Fred W. Huntly	Lasky	Jan. 2	Wil
Burton Law	Griffith	Now	Holly
Mrs. Geo. Hernandez	Triangle	Jan. 2	Wil
Pietro Soaso	Morus.	Jan. 2	Brdwy
Eugene H. Drake	Brunton	Now	Colo.
Ernest Pasque (For.)	Ince	Indef.	577330
Jack Cosgrave	Hampton	Jan. 2	Wil
Richard Cummings	Univ.	Jan. 2	5136
T. Gibson-Gowland	Univ.	March 2	23994
Pearl Elmore	N. Y.	Indef.	3760
Bert Woodruff	Ince	Jan. 2	3911
Wm. Courtwright	Universal	Jan. 2	1539
Jennie Lee	Brunton	Jan. 2	1739
Clarissa Selywnn Hvy	Weber	Jan. 2	577336
C. J. Lionel	Jennings	Jan. 2	2960
C. E. Thurston	Triangle	Jan. 2	557847
Clarice Codman	Dando	Jan. 2	2704
Mrs. Harry Davenport	Pickford	Jan. 2	2921
Merita Sterling	L-KO	Indef.	3161
Grace Orma	L-KO	Indef.	3779
Charles Force	Universal	Jan. 2	62310
Al W. Filson	Ince	Jan. 2	12073
Mark Strong	Asira	Indef.	3990
Inez Gomez	Brunton	Jan. 2	16
Adele Barker	Metro	Jan. 2	4361
Janet Sulley	Universal	Jan. 2	106
Helen Irving	Brunton	Jan. 2	61139
Tom Hawley	Dando	Jan. 2	3990
Josa Melville	Lasky	Now	593270
California Truman	Camera!	Dec. 29	577333
B. H. Delamater (Hvy)	Camera!	Dec. 29	1994
Mrs. Lydia Titus	Camera!	Dec. 29	3440
Tom Bates	Fox	Now	3094
William T. Garcia	Willis-Inglis	Now	3192
Mother Anderson	L-KO	Indef.	Holly.
Mrs. Lydia Titus	Vitagraph	Now	Bdy.
Millie Mathes	Brunton	Now	148
Calvert Carter	American	Now	6807
James Bradbury	Pickford	Now	1559
C. D. Knuske	Lasky	Feb. 9	3418
Tole Ducrow	Vitagraph	Now	59470
Sadie Gordon	1583	Now	Bdwy.
Billy Oakley	Rolin	Indef.	Bdy.
Wadsworth Harris	Universal	Indef.	4290
Anne Schaefer	Vitagraph	Now	53293
Lenore Lynard	Triangle	Now	577820
Ruth Handforth	Griffith	Now	5010
Sarah Kernan	Reban	Now	1437
Percy Challenger	Goldwyn	Now	57449
JUVENILES
Ward Wing	New Art	Ind.	Holly
Chas. Richards	Lasky	Indef.	P'co
George Hackathorn	National	Jan. 2	Holly
Raymond Cannon	Griff.	Indef.	Holly
Lee Phelps	Triangle	Jan. 2	70003
Clyde McCoy, Hvy	Vitagraph	Now	65437
Arthur Jasmin	Brunton	Jan. 2	2884
Robert Badger (14)	Universal	Jan. 2	3284
Francis Feeney	Ford	Jan. 2	57538
Valerio Olivo	F. Ford	Indef.	Bdy.
John Reidy	Goldwyn	Now	3603

MOVING PICTURE

STARS

Dance and Dine Under The Dome

"C" FRED HARLOW &
BILL JONES

On the Ocean Park Line
IN VENICE

Reliable Joe Murphy
Now Frazee Film Company
Member of
Assistant Directors Assn.

WILLIAM CLIFFORD

Now at Liberty

Bring in Your Moving Picture Negatives and Positives for

STILLS 35c UP
Special Rates to Movie People
HIPPODROME PHOTO STUDIO
Next Door to Hip Theatre, Main St.

BLOOM

FILM

LABORATORIES

ASK

Dal Clawson

Walter Lundeen
Art Unit

INCE. Freddy Frauck, casting. Culver City. Spencer Vachon, casting. Culver City.
J. DeGrasse	Dorothy Dalton	John Stumar	Bert Siebel	Sam Nelson	Society-Drama	Finished
Fred Niblo	Enid Bennet	Geo. Barnes	Doran Cox	Chas. Fairchild	Modern	Finished
Jerry Storm	Chas. Ray	Chet Lyons	Bill Currin	F. Hughes	Comedy	Finishing
KATHERINE MACDONALD CORP. C. Campbell. B. W. Singer. Pico and Georgia. 52214
Colin Campbell	MacDonald	A. Gondolphi	B. W. Singer	Phon	Comedy-Drama	Finishing
LASKY. L. M. Goodstadt, casting. 1520 Vine St. Edmund Mitchell. Holly 2400
Geo. Melford	Ethel Clayton	Paul Perry	L. Howland	A. Cowper	Drama	Finished
Donald Crisp	Washburn	F. Richardson	Clyde Smith	Comedy	Modern	Starting
C. B. De Mille	Star Cast	Alvin Wyckoff	Sam Woods	Drama	3rd Week	Finishing
Hugh Ford	Robt. Warwick	Joe Boyle	Joe Marshall	Drama	Finishing	2nd Week
Jas. Cruze	W. Reid	Frank Urson	C. Mitchell	Western	2nd Week	Finishing
Irvin Willat	Lila Lee	H. Kotani	Roy Marshall	Comedy	2nd Week	Finishing
L-KO. Oscar Jacobs, casting. Oscar Jacobs, Buyer. Sunset and Gower. Holly 96
Vim Moore	Bevan-Parley	O. G. Hill	Walter Stevens	Tom Stevens	Comedy	Finished
C. Hutchison	Dan Russell	McClain	Ted Stevens	Comedy	Waiting	3rd Week
W. Watson	Dunham-Mack	C. Widen	N. Tawrog	Comedy	2nd Week	Starting
F. Fishback	Adams-Doherty	Al Alt	Al Alt	Comedy	Starting	2nd Week
LYONS-MORAN COMPANY. Eugene Derue, casting. Universal City. Holly 2500
Lyons-Moran	Lyons-Moran	Al Cawood	Eugene Derue	A. C. Smith	Comedy	Weekly
METRO. Rose Mullaney, casting. Romayne and Cahuenga Av. D. H. Thompson. Holly 4485
Geo. D. Baker	Bert Lytell	R. B. Kurrie	C. Humdt	R. Northoff	Drama	5th Week
Herbert Blache	Emmy Wehlen	E. Gaudio	A. Kelley	Ed. Cohn	Drama	1st Week
Ed. Carewe	Viola Dana	J. Arnold	W. Cullison	D. Hogan	Comedy-Drama	Finished
Harry Franklyn	Hale Hamilton	R. Bergquist	Chas. Hundt	Comedy	1st Week	Finished
Chas. Swickard	May Allison	W. Fildew	B. Durning	Comedy	4th Week	Finished
Henry Otto	Emmy Wehlen	A. Martinelli	J. Strauss	Comedy	Finished	4th Week
MOROSCO. Mrs. Ford, casting. 201 N. Occidental. C. W. Comets. Wilshire 255
Walter Edwards	C. Talmage	F. Robinson	F. Robinson	Comedy-Drama	3rd Week	Finished
MODEL COMEDY CO. Bruno J. Becker, 1329 Gordon St. C. Everett, Buyer. Holly 2933
Bruno J. Beker	Gale Henry	Irving Reiss	C. Ed. Everett	Tom Caswell	Comedy	Starting
NATIONAL. Bernstein, casting. Purchasing Agent, J. R. Jackson. 1116 Lodi Pl. Holly 4470
Louis Chaudet	Carter DeHaven	Ross Fisher	Scotty Beal	H. Halhaway	Comedy-Drama	2nd Week
F. J. Grandon	Billie Rhodes	Joe Bretherton	Ethe-Meeker	E. Ross	Drama	Finishing
PARAMOUNT. Leigh Smith, casting. 4500 Sunset Blvd. Sid Koster, Buyer. Holly 2800
Elmer Clifton	Dorothy Gish	John Leezer	Leigh Smith	Pop Kennard	Comedy	Finished
MARY PICKFORD CO. (Brunton Studio). H. H. Lichtig. 5300 Melrose. J. Bolland. Holly 4080
S. Franklyn	Mary Pickford	Chas. Rosher	Warde Lascelle	J. Worker	Drama	4th Week
GREAT WESTERN PRODUCING CO. Sunset and Gower. Holly 96
Henry McRae	Cunard-Lincoln	Grant	F. Laemmle	Serial	7th Episode	Finished
SARGENT-OTTS CO. Clyde C. Westover, casting. Boyle 1508. Boyle and Stevenson Ave.
Lloyd Carleton	Wm. Otts	Fred Hartman	John Carlton	Morrison	Drama	Finished
STRAND-MUTUAL. Harry Edwards, casting. 6101 Sunset. Miss I. Lane, Buyer. Holly 3100
Scott Sidney	Elinor Field	Bert Wright	Art Munn	Comedy	Starting	4th Week
TOURNEUR FILM CO. Jas. Flood, casting. Culver City. West 6780
Maurice Tourneur	Fauline Stark	Rene Guisart	Jas. Flood	E. T. Ellis	Drama	4th Week
UNIVERSAL. Lilian Greenberger, casting. Universal City. Ray Rockett, Buyer. Holly 2500
Jack Ford	Harry Carey	J. Brown	Ed. Feeney	Prebble Brennan	Western	Casting
J. P. McGowan	Mario Walcamp	Miller-Perkins	R. Eason	Ernie Smith	Serial	14th Episode
Tod Browning	Mary McLaren	Al Siegler	Fred Tyler	Wecher	Drama	Finished
Jas. Horne	J. J. Corbett	Billie Edmonds	A. Plaven	Tunnel	9th Episode	Finishing
J. Jacord	E. Polo	Milt Moore	M. Murphy	E. Dyer	Comedy	Finishing
Wm. Campbell	Rodgers-Miller	Buddy Wales	Harry Burns	Messenger	Comedy	Finishing
R. Julian	M. Salisbury	E. Kurr	Rex Hodge	Wm. Howard	Drama	4th Week
R. Sturgeon	Priscilla Dean	Gosden	Al Russell	Hindle	Drama	3rd Week
Alan Holubar	Dorothy Phillips	Harry Harris	L. Dessau	Ernie Smith	Drama	2nd Week
Major Allen	Major Allen	P. Horne	E. Sodders	Clyde Vineyard	Comedy	Started
Roy Clement	Wilson-Gerber	Harry Gaut	Al Ritter	Dollings	Comedy	Started
Geo. Holt	Pete Morrison	P. Horne	C. Hall	Western	Casting	2nd Week
Al Santelli	Noel Burns	H. Oswald	W. Mayo	Comedy	Casting	2nd Week
E. Von Stroheim	Sam De Grasse	B. Reynolds	T. Joos	Drama	Started	2nd Week
VITAGRAPH. Individual casting. 1708 Talmadge. R. H. McCray, Buyer. Holly 2131
Wm. Duncan	Wm. Duncan	Steve Smith Jr.	Don Clarke	Marsetta	Western Serial	13th Episode
Bradby Bauman	Tony Moreno	Ernie Smith	Jack Pierce	A. Reis	Circus Serial	4th Episode
David Smith	Bessie Love	Chas. Seeling	W. Dagwell	A. C. Walker	Feature	Casting
Gilbert Pratt	Mont-Rock	Doc Cook	I. E. Luddy	Geo. Marion	Big V Comedy	2nd Week
Larry S. non	Samson-Carlisle	Chas. Seeling	M. Pebbles	W. Leota	Big V Comedy	Finishing
Jas. Young	Earle Williams	M. B. Du Pont	Chas. Bennett	Scotty Nichols	Drama	Casting
Noel Smith	Jimmy Aubrey	R. Armstrong	Doug Dawson	Allan Clarke	Comedy	2nd Week

Charlie Kaufman
Harry Harris
Frank Good
Deb Jennings
Joe August
Roy Klaffki
Irving Reis
Charlie Rosher
W. J. Croft
Bill Thornley
Bob Walters
Ask any of the first line
Cameramen. There is not room for all of them.
Who Does the Best
Work?
BLOOM
Phone Him—Holly 4015
7520 Sunset Blvd.

Was Your Test Rejected?
 You should know that the basis of a successful test is a good skin. Prominent women of the screen use California's Wonderful Com-plexion Cream, FLETCHER'S BLEACH PASTE, to protect their loveliness when going to and from locations.
Sold at All Leading Stores
VULCANIZING
Hollywood Tire Shop
 United States Tires, Racine Horse Shoe Tires, Goodyear Tires
J. D. FARQUHAR
 6512 Hollywood Blvd.

Leo F. Nelson (Gov.)	National	Jan. 2	3033	Holly
Clyde Benson (Hvy)	Lasky	Jan. 2	2800	Holly
Bert Grassby	Griffith	Indef.	597460	Holly
Geo. Fawcett	Grif.	Indef.	3634	Soth
Fred Bond	Universal	Jan. 2	745	Soth
Anna Q. Nilsson	Metro	Jan. 2	599213	Holly
Betty Burbank	Romayne	Jan. 2	1473	Wil.
Pomeroy Cannon, Hvy	K. M'Don't	Jan. 2	1316	Wil.
Arthur Allardt	Triangle	Jan. 2	597653	Wil.
Jane Talbot	Universal	Indef.	39038	Wil.
Mae Gaston	F. Ford	Indef.	4175	S. Monica
M. H. Foster	W. & L.	Jan. 2	2063	Pico
David Butler	Griffith	Jan. 2	3635	Pico
Walt Whitman	Universal	Feb. 9
May Walters (Cha)	Goldwyn	March 2
INGENUES
Beulah O'Hara	Brunton	Jan. 2	60077
HEAVIES
George Milo	Triangle	Jan. 2	3298	Pico
Bert Apling	Hampton	March 11	1807	Pico
Clarence F. Burton	Metro	Jan. 2	1350	Vermont
Fred Malatesta	Metro	March 30	597316	Wil.
James Farley	Brunton	Jan. 2	6022	Wil.
Harry Lamont (Ch)	National	April 10	59091
Wharton James	New Art	March 3	577932
A. Hollingsworth (Cha)	Brunton	Now	597538
Bill Patton (Cha)	Goldwyn	March 30	106	South
CHILDREN
Mickey Moore (2 1/4)	Univ.	Jan. 2	57497	Pico
Bunny Davie (4)	Universal	Jan. 2	3278	Pico
Mildred Davie (6)	Universal	Jan. 2	3500	Bdwy
Patty Magee (11)	National	Jan. 2	5761	Main
Dixie Doll	Univ.	Jan. 2	57427	Wil.
Pat Moore (4)	Lasky	Ind.	6463	Holly.
True Boardman (8)	Paralta	Jan. 2	3806	Holly.
Peggy Cartwright	Universal	Jan. 2	149d9	Wish.
Dick Cartwright	Paralta	Jan. 2
Kenneth Nordyke (12)	Universal	Feb. 23
Jack Wade (8)	Lasky
CAMERAMEN
Henry Cronjager	Pickford	Indef.
Bob Brotherton	Diando	Jan. 2	1356	Ing Bch
Arthur Powelson	Vitagraph	Jan. 6	4067	Holly.

THE WONDER
ACCESSORIES FOR THE CINEMA
 Costumes—Papier Mache—Plaster
 Miniatures and Mechanical Devices that Photograph Right
ARTISTS—SCULPTORS—BUILDERS
 The Wonder commands the services of Carlton Gardelle, the well known Sculptor and Artist.
THE WONDER
 6017 Santa Monica Blvd. Phone Holly 81
WILLIS and INGLIS
 Film Experts
 Engagement — Publicity Management
 Wright-Callendar Building
 Main 7442—7443
 The Wonder—One Block from Clifford Studio.

GRAUMANS

MARGUERITE CLARK

in

"THREE MEN AND A GIRL"

Zukor-Paramount

From Edward Childs Carpenter's Story

"THE THREE BEARS"

Continuous performance, starts Monday at 1 o'clock—rest of week at 11:15 a. m.—until 11:30 p. m. Before 5:30, 15c and 25c. Evenings, 25c and 35c. Three evening shows every Saturday and Sunday at 6:45, 8:15 and 10:15 p. m. Morning Organ Recital starts 11:15 until 11:30 a. m.; Sundays from 11:15 until 11:45 a. m.

IPPODROME

Three Days—Starting Sunday, April 6

BERT LYTELL in

"BLIND MAN'S EYES"

Four Days—Starting Wednesday, Apr. 9

MURIEL OSTRICHE in

"THE HAND INVISIBLE"

AND HIP VAUDEVILLE

VICTORY

FIRST RUN FEATURES

838 - S. BROADWAY

Entire Week

CORINNE GRIFFITH

In a Five-Reel Version of the

"UNKNOWN QUANTITY"

By O. Henry

CLUNE'S BROADWAY THEATRE

EIGHT DAYS—STARTING SUNDAY, APRIL 6

DOROTHY GISH in

"BOOTS"

James Aubrey in "Jazz and Jail Birds"

Latest Current News Events

Clune's Symphony Orchestra

Superba

Today and All Week

11 A. M. to 11 P. M.

DAILY

CARL LAEMMLE PRESENTS THE BRILLIANT UNIVERSAL STAR

PRISCILLA DEAN

In the Trickiest, Most Mysterious, Amazing Crook-Drama of the Year

"THE SILK LINED BURGLAR"

Adapted from Jack Boyle's Stirring Magazine Story

Also the popular comedians, Lyons & Moran, in "The Smell of the Yukon."

CALIFORNIA

Main at 8th

"America's Foremost Photoplay Edifice"

Week Starting Monday

ETHEL CLAYTON

Supported by Elliott Dexter, in

"MAGGIE PEPPER"

And a Program of Distinctive "California" Features, including California Orchestra—"Best in the West"—Nicola Donatelli, Conducting.

JESSE CRAWFORD at the Organ

LOUIS DIMOND, Our New Musical Star

and Al. Christie's First Two-Reel Special Comedy

"SALLY'S BLIGHTED CAREER"

This Week

CALIFORNIA THEATRE

Paramount presents

Ethel Clayton in

"Maggie Pepper"

Working title same, from

Charles Klein's stage production,

"Maggie Pepper"

Made at Lasky Studios

Scenario by Gardner Hunting

Photographed by D. Abel

Directed by Chet Withey

CAST

Maggie Pepper.....Ethel Clayton
Joe Holbrook.....Elliot Dexter
Ada Darkin.....Winifred Greenwood
Sam Darkin.....Tully Marshall
Claire Darkin.....Edna Mae Wilson
Jake Rothschild.....Raymond Hatton
Alice Keane.....Marcia Manon
John Hargen.....Clyde Benson
Dud Corey.....Billy Elmer
Delivery Boy.....Bud Duncan
Detective.....C. H. Geldart
Mrs. Thatcher.....Fay Holderness

SYMPHONY THEATRE

The Lloyd Carlton Productions

presents Enid Markey in

"Mother I Need You"

Working title, "The Curse of Eve"

Made in Los Angeles

Scenario by J. Hill

Photographed by W. C. Thompson

Directed by Frank Beal

CAST

Eva Stanley.....Enid Markey
John Gilbert.....Ed Conen
Jane Keller.....Marian Warner
Leo Spencer.....Jack Standing
Marie Norton.....Clarissa Selwyn
Mrs. Stanley.....Eugene Besserer
Peggy Malone.....Elsie Greeson
Dr. Burton.....Wm. Quinn
Winifred Spencer.....G. Raymond Nye
Jessie Courroy.....Laura Lyle

VICTORY THEATRE

Vitagraph presents

Corrine Griffith in

"The Unknown Quantity"

Working title, same

An O. Henry Story

Made in the East

Directed by Tom R. Mills

CAST

Mary Boyne.....Corrine Griffith
Dan Kinsolving.....Huntley Gordon
Septimus Kinsolving.....H. Davenport
Thos. Boyne.....Jack Ridgeway
Peter Kenwitz.....Frederick Buckley
Sammy Boyne.....Jack McLean

CLUNE'S BROADWAY

Paramount presents Dorothy Gish in

"Boots"

Working title, same

Made at Paramount Studio, Hollywood

Story by Martha Pitman

Scenario by M. M. Stearns

Photographed by John Seeger

Directed by Elmer Clifton

CAST

"Boots".....Dorothy Gish
Everett White.....Richard Barthelmess
Mme. deValdee.....Fontine La Rue
Nicholas Jerome.....Edward Peil
Lydia Hampstead.....Kate V. Toncray
In Chauffeur's Clothes.....Raymond Cannon

GRAUMAN'S THEATRE

Paramount presents

Marguarite Clark in

"Three Men and a Girl"

Story from Edward Childs Carpenter's book, "The Three Bears"

Scenario by Eve Unsill

Photographed by Henry Cronsgrazer

Directed by Marshall Neilan

CAST

Sylvia Weston.....Marguerite Clark
Christopher Kent, a Lawyer.....
Richard Barthelmess
Dr. Henry Forsyth.....Percy Marmont
Julius Vanneman, a Violinist.....
Jerome Patrick
Theresa Jenkins, Sylvia's Aunt.....
Ida Darling
Dallas Dawkins.....Charles Craig
Guide.....Sydney D'Albrook
Mrs. Julia Draper.....Betty Bouton
Abbey.....Maggie H. Fisher

HOLLYWOOD

6758 Hollywood Blvd.

579300

Monday—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin and William Stowell in "When a Girl Loves." Parsons Comedy, "Proposing Bill."

Tuesday—John Barrymore in "Here Comes the Bride." Mutual Strand Comedy.

Wednesday—Gladys Brockwell in "The Strange Woman." Christie Comedy.

Thursday and Friday—Harold Lockwood in "The Great Romance." Larry Semon Comedy, "Huns and Hyphens."

Saturday—Charles Ray in "String Beans." Harold Lloyd Comedy.

Sunday—William Farnum in "The Rainbow Trail." Smiling Billy Parsons Comedy, "You Know What I Mean."

APOLLO

5552 Hollywood Blvd.

Holly 3737

Monday—George Behan in "Hearts of Men."

Tuesday—Don't Change Your Husband." Christie Comedy.

Wednesday—"Don't Change Your Husband." Harold Lloyd Comedy.

Thursday—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin and Wm. Stowell in "When a Girl Loves." Lyons-Moran Comedy.

Friday—Constance Talmadge in "Sauce for the Goose." Vitagraph Comedy, "Soap Suds and Sap Heads."

Saturday—Ethel Clayton in "The Mystery Girl." "Fatty" Arbuckle in "Camping Out."

Sunday—Rex Beach's "Too Fat to Fight."

IRIS

6508 Hollywood Blvd.

579805

Monday—Clara Kimball Young in "Cheating Cheaters." Fox Comedy, "Roaring Lions and Wedding Bells."

Tuesday and Wednesday—William Faversham in "The Silver King." Gaumont Weekly.

Thursday and Friday—Constance Talmadge in "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots." Sennett Comedy, "East Lynne with Variations."

Saturday—Mary Pickford in "Stella Maris." Eddie Polo in "The Lure of the Circus."

Sunday—Cecil de Mille's production, "Don't Change Your Husband." Also a Comedy.

WINDSOR

Western at Second

568070

Sunday and Monday—Clara Kimball Young in "The Road Through the Dark," and Mr. and Mrs. Sidnew Drew in "Once a Mason."

Tuesday—Enrico Caruso in "My Cousin," and Bill Parsons in "Proposing Bill."

Wednesday—George M. Cohan in "Broadway Jones," and Harold Lloyd Comedy.

Thursday and Friday—Constance Talmadge in "Mrs. Leffingwell's Boots." Pathe News, and Lyons-Moran Comedy.

Saturday—Shirley Mason and Ernest Truex in "Good-bye, Bill," and Mack Sennett Comedy.

SHAMROCK THEATRE

Sixth and Hill Sts.

Monday—Harold Lockwood in "Lend Me Your Name," and a Christie, "Does Your Sweetheart Flirt?"

Tuesday—Catherine Calvert in "Marriage for Convenience," and Lyons and Moran in "Hearts and Let Us."

Wednesday—Mary MacLaren in "The Model's Confession," and World in Pictures.

Thursday—Alice Joyce in "To the Highest Bidder." Billie Rhodes in "Like Mother Made."

Friday—Clara Kimball Young in "Marriage a la Carte," and the latest news in pictures.

Saturday—Short Features. Charlie Chaplin in "The Floor Walker." Sidney Drew in "Help Wanted." Bobby Connelly in "The Mayor of Kid City." Harold Lloyd in "Hear 'Em Rave."

Sunday—Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Walthall in "With Hoops of Steel." Larry Semon in "Whistles and Windows."